CONSTITUTION.

ARTICLE I.

OBJECTS OF THE CLUB.

THE objects of the Club shall be to advance the knowledge and love of Art, through the exhibition of works of Art, the acquisition of books and papers for the purpose of forming an Art library, lectures upon subjects pertaining to Art, and by other kindred means, and to promote social intercourse among its members.

ARTICLE II.

GOVERNMENT.

SECTION 1.—The government of the Club shall consist of a President, two Vice-Presidents, a Treasurer, a Secretary, a Librarian, and an Executive Committee of twelve.

The said officers shall together constitute a Board of Management of the Club, and at least four of them shall be professional artists.

All said officers, except the members of the Executive Committee, shall be chosen annually at the annual meeting of the Club, which shall be held on the first Saturday in January.

SECT. 2.—At the annual meeting in 1883, twelve members of the Executive Committee shall be chosen, four for terms of one year, four for terms of two years, and four for terms of three years each; and annually thereafter, four members of said Committee shall be chosen for terms of three years each.

All the before-mentioned officers shall be chosen by ballot, and shall continue in office until their successors are chosen, or until they are removed by vote of a majority of all the members of the Club.

A vacancy in any of said offices may be filled at any regular meeting of the Club.

SECT. 3.—At the regular meeting, in December of each year, a committee shall be appointed by the Club to nominate candidates for the Board of Management for the ensuing year.

SECT. 4.—The Board of Management shall hold all the property, effects and assets of the Club in trust for the benefit and enjoyment of the members thereof, and shall have the management and control of the same, and exercise a general superintendence over the affairs of the Club; shall lay all assessments, and make or authorize all necessary contracts and purchases, but shall have no power to render the Club, or any member thereof, liable for any debt beyond the amount of money which shall at the time of contracting such debt be in the Treasurer's hands, and not needed for the discharge of prior debts or liabilities; nor to make purchases of works of Art for the Club exceeding one hundred dollars in cost, without a vote of the Club authorizing the same.

SECT. 5.—They shall appoint Standing Committees: on Membership (consisting of five persons), on Finance

HOUSE RULES.

The Club-house will be open every day from 8 o'clock A. M. until 11 o'clock P. M.

No fee shall be paid to any servant or employé of the Club.

Members are not permitted to send servants out of the Club-house, but outside service will be provided, for which a reasonable charge will be made.

All charges must be paid to the Superintendent, before leaving the Club-house, as no accounts will be kept with members.

No dog shall be allowed in the Club-house.

Pipe smoking shall not be permitted in any part of the Club-house.

Smoking is prohibited in the Library and in the rooms occupied during the business meetings of the Club. All complaints must be made in writing to the House Committee and deposited in a box kept for that purpose in the office.

(consisting of three persons), and such other committees they may deem necessary.

ARTICLE III.

AMENDMENTS.

No alteration or amendment of the Constitution or By-Laws shall be made, unless the proposed alteration or amendment be presented at a regular meeting, and posted in the Club-house for at least seven days thereafter, and finally adopted at a subsequent meeting (due notice of which stating the changes proposed shall have been given), by the votes of two-thirds of all members present and voting thereon.

ARTICLE IV.

NUMBER OF MEMBERS.

The membership of the Club shall be limited to seven hundred and fifty persons, exclusive of such members as may be professional artists resident in Massachusetts.

SECT. 4.—His accounts shall be kept in books belonging to the Club, which shall be at all times open to the inspection of any member of the Government, and shall be audited by the Finance Committee, under whose direction, also, he shall deposit or invest the funds of the Club.

ARTICLE IV.

SECRETARY.

SECTION 1.—The Secretary shall have the custody of the records and papers relating to the business of the Club.

SECT. 2.—He shall issue all notices, and shall call special meetings of the Club whenever requested to do so by the President or fifteen members, and of the Board of Management upon the request of the President or of three members thereof.

SECT. 3.—He shall record the proceedings and votes of all meetings and conduct the correspondence of the Club.

SECT. 4.—He shall keep a list of members of the Club, compare the same from time to time with that kept by the Treasurer, and report any variations between the two lists to the Board of Management.

ARTICLE V.

LIBRARIAN.

The Librarian shall have the supervision of all books, periodicals and works of Art belonging to the Club, or deposited in the Club-house (except upon the occasion of a special exhibition), and, under the advice of the government, shall see that the literary department of the Club is well and regularly supplied.

ARTICLE VI.

MEETINGS.

SECTION 1.—The annual meeting of the Club for the election of officers shall be held on the first Saturday in January of each year, a printed notice of which shall be sent to each member fourteen days previous to such meeting, and shall also be posted for the same period upon the notice-board in the Club-house.

SECT. 2.—The regular business meetings of the Club shall be held on the first Saturday evening of each month, except in July, August and September; but business may be transacted at adjourned meetings, or at special meetings duly called.

SECT. 3.—Notice of special meetings, stating their object, shall be sent to each member five days before said meetings, and shall also be posted for the same period upon the notice-board in the Club-house.

ARTICLE VII.

PROXIES.

At any meeting of the Club absent members may be represented by members present, duly authorized to vote, by written proxies filed with the Secretary before meeting.

ARTICLE VIII.

QUORUM.

SECTION 1.—At meetings of the Club, ten members personally present shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of any business, except the election of officers and honorary members, the expulsion of members and amendments to the Constitution and By-Laws, when twenty-five members (at least ten of whom must be present in person) shall be deemed a quorum.

SECT. 2.—At meetings of the Board of Management, seven members shall constitute a quorum.

ARTICLE IX.

COMMITTEE ON MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1.—The Committee on Membership shall consist of five persons, to one of whom the name and residence of each person desiring to become a member of the Club shall be proposed in writing by a member.

SECT. 2.—The committee shall consider all communications in reference to the persons proposed, and make careful examinations as to their qualifications, and if a majority of the committee are opposed to the admission of any candidate, his name shall not be further acted upon, and he shall not be proposed again for six months.

SECT. 3.—If a majority of the committee favor his admission, his name shall be reported to the Secretary, and posted as required under Article X. of these By-Laws.

SECT. 4.—The proceedings of this committee shall be secret and confidential.

ARTICLE X.

ELECTION OF MEMBERS.

SECTION 1.—Elections for the admission of members shall take place at the regular meetings of the Club.

SECT. 2.—Notice of each meeting, and the name, with the residence, of each candidate for admission, and the name of each person proposing him, shall be posted in the Club-house by the Secretary fourteen days previous to such meeting.

SECT. 3.—One negative vote in ten shall exclude; and no candidate shall be deemed admitted who shall not have received twenty votes.

SECT. 4.—No candidate who shall have been rejected shall be proposed again for six months.

ARTICLE XI.

HONORARY MEMBERS.

SECTION 1.—Honorary members, proposed by the Board of Management, may be elected by a vote of three-fourths of the members present and voting at any meeting held for the election of members, provided that the names of the persons proposed shall be posted on the notice-board fourteen days previous to such meeting, and there be at least twenty-five votes cast.

SECT. 2.—Any one admitted under this article shall be exempt from the payment of the entrance-fee and all assessments, but shall have no vote in the proceedings of the Club.

ARTICLE XII.

CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP.

SECTION 1.—No person shall become a member of the Club (unless elected under Article XI.) until he shall have paid to the Treasurer the entrance-fee, and signed his name to the Constitution and By-Laws, in a book kept for that purpose by the Treasurer.

SECT. 2.—The Secretary shall notify each person of his election, and shall furnish him with a copy of the Constitution and By-Laws.

SECT. 3.—No person shall be considered a member (with the exception above noted) who shall fail for sixty days, after notice of his election, to comply with the provisions of this article, unless his name has again been proposed and favorably acted upon.

ARTICLE XIII.

ENTRANCE-FEE.

SECTION 1.—The entrance-fee shall be ~~twenty~~ thirty dollars, but professional artists shall have the privilege of paying their entrance-fees either in money or by the contribution of original sketches, or other works of Art, if accepted by the Board of Management as a sufficient equivalent therefor.

SECT. 2.—Such contributions shall become the property of the Club, to be retained in its possession, or disposed of, at the discretion of the Government.

Amended at meeting of Nov. 3d 1883

Sec 3 – Art XIV – amended May 3d 1884

Should any member neglect to his assessment for sixty days after it is due and notice thereof sent to him, the Government shall post his name in the Club House, and shall provided his assessment is not paid or a satisfactory reason given for such neglect within thirty days thereafter erase his name from the list of members

Sec 6 – Art XIV – repealed May 3d 1884

ARTICLE XIV.

ASSESSMENTS.

SECTION 1.—The total yearly assessments shall not exceed in any one year the sum of fifteen dollars for professional artists, and thirty dollars for other members.

SECT. 2.—A notice of each assessment shall be delivered to the member liable therefor, or shall be mailed to him, or shall be left at his usual place of business or abode.

SECT. 3.—Should any member neglect to pay his assessment for sixty days after it is due, and notice thereof has been sent to him, the Government may (provided no satisfactory excuse is given for such neglect) erase his name from the list of members.

See app page

SECT. 4.—In case of such erasure, notice shall be sent to him in writing that he has ceased to be a member, specifying the reasons therefor, and he shall thereupon cease to be a member, and shall forfeit all his right, title, and interest in and to all the property of the Club.

SECT. 5.—Any artist member intending to be absent from the State for one year or more shall be exempt from all assessments that may be laid during such absence, provided he gives previous notice thereof to the Treasurer.

SECT. 6.—Any member absent from the State when any assessment may become due shall not incur any penalty, provided he pays the same within thirty days after his return.

See app page

ARTICLE XV.

RESIGNATIONS.

SECTION 1.—Any member may withdraw from the Club by paying all dues, and giving written notice to the Secretary on or before the thirty-first day of December, and any resignation made subsequently thereto shall not discharge the member presenting it from his assessment for the ensuing year.

SECT. 2.—Such resignation shall operate as an assignment and release to the Club of all the right, title and interest of such member in and to the property and assets of the Club.

ARTICLE XVI.

EXPULSION OF MEMBERS.

SECTION 1.—In case of persistence in the infraction of any rule by any member, or of any conduct on the part of any member which, in the opinion of the Government, may tend to endanger the good order, welfare, or character of the Club, it shall be its duty to erase his name from the list of members, and to notify him in writing of his expulsion, specifying the reasons therefor.

SECT. 2.—He shall thereupon cease to be a member, and shall forfeit all the rights and privileges of membership, unless, upon his appeal to the Club, at the next stated meeting after his expulsion, the decision of the Government shall be reversed by a majority of votes cast at said meeting.

Vote adopted at the Club meeting held May 6, 1882.

Any proposed change in the Management of the Club shall be submitted in writing at a regular monthly meeting, and the Secretary shall include such proposed change in the printed notice for the next succeeding meeting, for such action as the Club may then determine.

Adopted March 1st 1884

Art XVII

No spirituous or intoxicating liquor shall be sold in the Club House nor shall card playing be permitted therein.

4. Report from the Secretary.
5. Reports from Special Committees.
6. Any further business regularly before the meeting.

SECT. 3.—Special meetings shall be called by the Secretary whenever requested to do so in writing by the President or three members of the Board of Management.

SECT. 4.—Notice of special meetings, stating their object, shall be sent by mail to each member at least forty-eight hours before the time appointed for said meeting, and no other business than stated in the notice shall be transacted at that meeting.

ARTICLE II.

STANDING COMMITTEES.

SECTION 1.—At the first meeting of the Board of Management in January the following Standing Committees shall be elected to serve during the current year:—The Membership Committee, consisting of five members; the Finance Committee, consisting of three members; the Library Committee, consisting of three members; the House Committee, consisting of five members; the Exhibition Committee, consisting of five members; the Entertainment Committee, consisting of six members, including the President and Secretary, who shall be members ex-officio. The Hanging Committee, consisting of five members, of whom four at least shall be artists, shall be nominated in the same manner as the Jury provided for in Art. VIII.

SECT. 2.—The Treasurer, the Secretary and the House, Library, Exhibition and Entertainment Committees shall each submit in writing at the adjourned first meeting of the Board of Management a report, showing in detail the probable sums needed for the expense of their departments during the current year.

ARTICLE III.

HOUSE COMMITTEE.

SECTION 1.—The House Committee shall have the immediate charge and control of the Club-house, and of the furniture, fixtures, works of Art, ornaments and other property contained therein, belonging to the Club or for which it is held responsible, excepting as hereinafter provided under Article IV.

SECT. 2.—The Committee shall have the power (subject always to the control of the Board of Management) to engage and discharge the servants of the Club, and to make necessary purchases, sales and repairs.

SECT. 3.—The Committee shall prescribe the duties and have control of the servants of the Club.

SECT. 4.—The Committee shall provide the suppers given at the regular Club meetings, and such lunches as may be given by the Club.

SECT. 5.—The Committee shall provide lunches for the Juries and for the Hanging Committee whenever requested to do so by the Committee on Exhibitions.

SECT. 6.—The Committee shall make necessary rules for the government of the Club-house, and preservation of order and obedience to the Constitution and By-Laws of the Club and the Rules of the Board of Management, which rules, after approval by the Board, shall be posted on the bulletin board.

SECT. 7.—The Committee shall cause insurance to be effected, in the name of the Club, on the house, furniture, fixtures and other property belonging to the Club, and shall also cause insurance to be effected, in the name of the Club, for the benefit of whom it may concern, on such works of Art and other property as may be loaned to it for the purpose of ornamenting the rooms of the Club-house.

ARTICLE IV.

COMMITTEE ON EXHIBITIONS.

SECTION 1. The Committee on Exhibitions shall have the full charge and control of all exhibitions of works of Art given by the Club.

SECT. 2. The Committee shall fix the time and decide the character of the exhibitions, and during their continuance shall have charge and possession of the Club gallery and the public entrance and stairway leading thereto, and the rooms connected therewith.

SECT. 3. The Committee shall make and enforce such rules and regulations for the government of employés connected with the exhibitions, and for the safety and convenience of persons visiting the same, as the Committee may deem necessary and proper.

SECT. 4. The Committee shall have authority to engage and discharge salesmen and saleswomen, door-keepers, collectors, and other necessary employès, all of whom shall be under their control and direction.

SECT. 5. The Committee shall prepare and issue circulars and notices, announcing the details in regard to each exhibition, and shall conduct all correspondence concerning it.

SECT. 6. The Committee shall have authority to make all necessary contracts for the collection, return and transportation of contributions intended for exhibitions, and shall receive and have the entire charge of such contributions, and shall attend to their prompt and safe return after the exhibitions have closed, and shall return all that are rejected by the Jury as soon as the rejections are ascertained, and shall notify the contributors that such rejections have been made.

SECT. 7. The Committee shall determine the amount of insurance required on the pictures and works of Art in each Exhibition, and shall prepare a list of the same, with the valuation set against each one, and shall cause insurance to be effected in conformity therewith at the expense of the Club, and in its name for the benefit of whom it may concern.

SECT. 8. The Committee shall notify the Jury and the Hanging Committee of the time when their services will be required, and shall notify the House Committee to provide luncheons for them in the Club-house.

SECT. 9. The Committee shall prepare and issue a catalogue of each exhibition, which shall contain a list of the accepted works of Art, the title of each, the name of the artist and owner, the price, if for sale, and its number in the catalogue.

SECT. 10. The Committee shall prepare and issue tickets for the Reception, to be given at the opening of each exhibition, on which occasion the Club-house shall be thrown open to guests, and shall send to each member of the Club a printed notice announcing the opening of the exhibition, and enclosing one of said reception tickets and such a number of admission tickets as they may deem advisable.

ARTICLE V.

COMMITTEE ON LIBRARY.

SECTION 1.—All books, periodicals and newspapers belonging to or deposited with the Club shall be kept in the charge of the Librarian, for the use of the members at all times.

SECT. 2.—No book shall be taken from the rooms of the Club except by special permission of the Librarian, obtained upon written application, and no book shall be allowed to remain out of the Library more than seven days.

SECT. 3.—The Committee on Library shall have the disbursement of all moneys appropriated for the use of the Library. Contributions of books, engravings or funds may be made to the Library, the receipt of which shall be suitably acknowledged to the donors, whose names shall be recorded.

ARTICLE VI.

COMMITTEE ON ENTERTAINMENTS.

The Committee on Entertainments shall, as often as practicable, provide for the benefit of the members such entertainments as are suitable to the objects of the Club, except during the months of June, July, August and September, and the Secretary shall send notices thereof to members of the Club, each of whom may be allowed to invite a lady to attend.

Special meeting of Board Mar 22/84 - Voted that

Sec 2 of Art VIII be amended to read as follows - all works of Art intended for these Exhibitions (except their own work contributed by Artist members of the Jury) shall be submitted by

ARTICLE VII.

HANGING COMMITTEE.

It shall be the duty of this Committee to place the pictures and works of Art accepted by the Jury for the General Exhibitions, in the gallery of the Club-house, in such places and positions as the Committee may think proper.

ARTICLE VIII.

EXHIBITIONS.

SECTION 1.—There shall be two or more General Exhibitions each year, under the following rules :

SECT. 2.—All works of Art contributed to these exhibitions shall be submitted to a Jury consisting of five members, to be nominated at a meeting of the artist members specially called for the purpose by the Secretary of the Club, which nominations shall be subject to the approval and change by the Board of Management, who shall then appoint them as the Jury, and they shall vote on each work separately, and thus decide on its acceptance or rejection.

SECT. 3.—All proceedings of the said Jury shall be secret and confidential, and any member thereof who shall divulge any of its proceedings shall be ineligible to serve on a Jury thereafter.

SECT. 4.—Not more than three works by the same artist in any one of the three departments of painting, sculpture or drawing shall be placed in any general exhibition, and as a rule copies will not be admitted.

See app
Page

SECT. 5.—No picture intended for the exhibitions will be received after the date fixed by the Committee.

SECT. 6.—Artists who are not members of the Club may be invited by the Committee on Exhibitions to contribute, subject to the rules governing the exhibitions.

SECT. 7.—Admissions to the exhibitions will be permitted only upon tickets issued by the members, which will be furnished to them by the Secretary or Superintendent.

SECT. 8.—One ticket to the reception on the opening night, admitting a gentleman and ladies, shall be sent to each member and each contributor.

SECT. 9.—Information regarding these matters shall be distinctly stated in a circular to be sent to every member of the Club, to which shall be affixed a blank form of schedule for works offered for the exhibition.

SECT. 10.—On the first Saturday of each month from October to May inclusive (if the gallery is not in use), an Informal Exhibition shall be held, consisting of such pictures, sketches and works of Art as members and others may contribute, subject to the approval of the Committee on Exhibitions.

SECT. 11.—Other exhibitions may be held from time to time under vote of the Board of Management.

ARTICLE IX.

SUPPERS AND LUNCHES.

A supper shall be provided at the regular monthly meetings of the Club, and a luncheon shall be provided each Saturday evening from November to May inclusive, except on the evenings when the regular Club meetings occur.

ARTICLE X.

STRANGERS AND VISITORS.

SECTION 1.—Gentlemen not members of the Club, who reside forty miles or more beyond the limits of the city of Boston, and have no place of business therein, shall be deemed strangers.

SECT. 2.—The House Committee may extend the privileges of the Club-house to a stranger during his visit to the city, excepting on the first Saturday evening of each month, and any member of said Committee may, at the written request of a member of the Club, issue a written invitation to a stranger conferring such privileges for not more than one month, but no such invitation shall be issued to a stranger who has received a similar invitation within three months, unless by a special vote of the House Committee.

SECT. 3.—Any member may introduce a gentleman non-member into the Club-house for one day only, excepting on the first Saturday evening in each month, but such introduction shall not confer a right of entrance except on that day. The member introducing or requesting an invitation for a visitor or stranger shall register his name and residence and the date of the introduction or request in a book kept in the office of the Club for that purpose, and shall affix his signature thereto.

SECT. 4.—The rooms of the Club-house shall not be open to ladies except on occasions when they are invited by the Board of Management, and during the evening receptions at the opening of exhibitions.

SECT. 5.—Guests to the monthly Club Suppers to the number of fifteen may be invited, upon application to the President or Vice-President. This privilege may be suspended by the Board of Management at its discretion.

ARTICLE XI.

OFFICERS AND COMMITTEES.

A complete list of the Officers and Committees of the Club shall be kept posted up in the Club-house; and such list shall be corrected by the Secretary as changes occur.

ARTICLE XII.

PROPERTY.

SECTION 1.—No picture, statue, or other work of Art, the property of the Club, or any property entrusted to it, shall be taken from the rooms of the Club, except by the authority of the House Committee, or as heretofore provided.

SECT. 2.—Any destruction of, or injury to, the property of the Club, or of any articles or works of Art which may be in the custody thereof, shall be paid for by the member who shall have caused the same; and the amount to be paid by such member shall be the cost of replacing or repairing the property so destroyed or injured, the same to be certified by the President and countersigned by the Treasurer, but the Board of Management shall have authority to remit the same at their discretion.

ARTICLE XIII.

Any complaint or suggestion concerning the management of the Club may be addressed to the House Committee by any member, over his own signature, and a box shall be kept in the Club-house for the reception of notices.

ARTICLE XIV.

AMENDMENTS.

Alterations, amendments and additions may be made to these Rules by the Board of Management, at any meeting called for that purpose.
